YOUR IDENTITY AND RISE TO YOUR FULL POTENTIAL

DAY 4: YOU ARE WORTH IT, DETERMINE YOUR VALUE

They grab each other's hands and face one another. "Dear Heavenly Father, we know you are holy and all knowing. You are the King of kings, the first and last, beginning and end. You are all-powerful, and nothing is too difficult for You," Josiah prays.

"Lord, You are the Prince of peace, my Saviour and my friend. I'm unworthy to be called your child."

"Father, we need Your help, we cannot do this on our own." The wind starts to blow harder, Senora wavers, but Josiah clings strongly to her hands. He won't let her go. Not this time.

"Lord Jesus, You tell us that in our weakness Your strength will shine through." The ground shakes.

"You remind us that nothing is impossible for You. Your burden is light. You give ear to our prayers." The snow starts to fall from the branches almost cutting into their faces.

"God help us now. In Your power, You have all authority and all wisdom. Please grant us wisdom now."

"Please show Your power. You have risen. You have won."

"Father, you know our fears, our transgressions, and yes, even our doubts. Show us your power and authority now."

"Blessed is the one who fears the Lord always, but whoever hardens his heart will fall into calamity." The wind and snow blow so loudly that Senora can hardly hear her own words coming out of her mouth. "Please, Father, help us to save her."

"I praise you, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Wonderful are your works; my soul knows it very well."

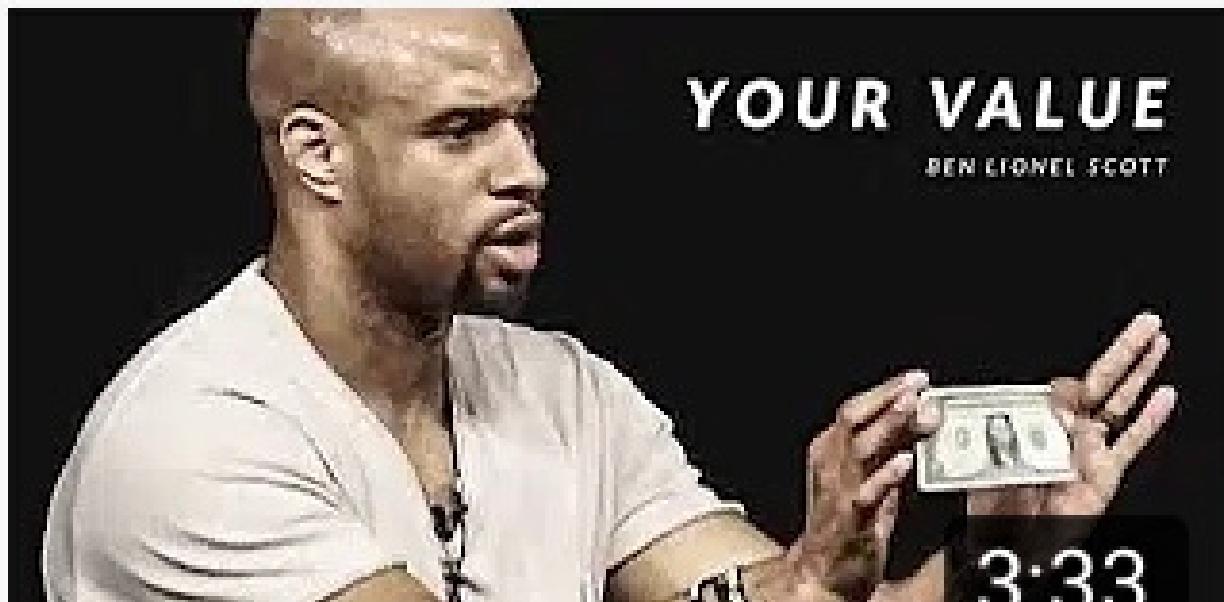

"You know our every thought before we say them; you know our strengths and our weaknesses. You know our mistakes and our sins. Yet you still love us. Your thoughts of us outnumber the grains of sand in the entire world. I know I don't always come to you first, forgive me for this, but I pray you will hear me now. Show us the way, may your power shine through all the chaos and noise. You have the authority here and no one else."

When they feel they have no more strength, the wind suddenly stops, and all becomes calm. They both pray, "Amen."
-Treasure Kingdom.

God hears our prayers. God the creator of all things knit you together and took great care in make you who you are. You have a purpose and a value. You are worth so much to God that He chose to die for you. He believes in you and knows you better then you know yourself. These next two videos will help gain perspective.

You are worth more than a $1 bill. You have more value than this. God created you and you have such great value.

God created you down to the smallest cell in your body. As I shared earlier, we all play a role in the body of Christ. When we focus on our goals and share our goals and strengths to encourage others, the body will function well to build each other up. When we look on how we can help others, we begin to see what battles they may be facing alone. We find freedom in our own pain and strength to help others win.

Pray for God to open your heart and eyes, for you to determine your value in Him. "Our freedom in Christ is one of the most precious commodities he have received from our spiritual union with God. Because the Spirit of the Lord is in you, you are free to become the person God created you to be. You are no longer compelled to walk according to the flesh as you were before conversion. You are not even compelled to walk according to the Spirit, but you are inwardly bent in that direction. You have the choice to walk according to the Spirit or to walk according to the flesh."

-Victory over the Darkness, Neil T. Anderson.

You need to walk in that freedom and knowledge of how valuable you are. I challenge you to consider your value. Make a list of I am statements you believe about yourself on the left, on the right make a list of what the Bible says about you. Compare these two lists.

What I believe about myself

What the Bible says about me

"Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life?"

~ Matthew 6:26-27.

God places more value on you than anything else He has created. You are made in God's image. "You will keep in perfect peace those whose minds are steadfast, because they trust in you. Trust in the Lord forever, for the Lord, the Lord himself, is the Rock eternal. We also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ. We have now received this reconciliation through Him. Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, in this way death spread to all men, because all sinned. For He chose us in Him before the creation of the world to be holy and blameless in His sight. In love He predestined us for adoption to sonship through Jesus Christ, in accordance with His pleasure and will - to the praise of His glorious grace, which He has freely given us in the One He loves."

"I surrender to your loving arms. Help me find your love and rest in your peace," she says, sending a prayer to God. "I need you." She buries her face in her hands.

"See, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands; your walls are ever before me. For we are God's workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do."

"Thank you, Father, for loving me and showing me my value. In Jesus name, amen."
-Senora, Treasure Kingdom

Like Senora discovered her value in Christ, you can find your value. Review these scriptures: Isaiah 26:3-4; Romans 5:11-12; Ephesians 1:4-6; Isaiah 49:16; Ephesians 2:10. What do these verses tell you about your value?

What value do you place on your relationships?

If you, with your own struggles, will go out of your way to give justice and value to see what is right happen. What value will your heavenly Father place on you? How will you step up and help others determine their value?
